The biannual modeFRONTIER 2012 Users' Meeting provides a unique forum to discover how engineering and academic experts apply the latest methods and techniques to optimize simulation design processes. It is a leading forum for users, researchers, practitioners and developers to explore cutting-edge ideas and to exchange techniques, experiences and emerging methods in simulation and optimization technology.

modeFRONTIER Users' Meeting 2012 welcomes partners to exhibit any product or service that may complement the modeFRONTIER product lines.

The Show Area, placed in the "Zodiaco room" guarantees a central position to all exhibitors during coffee breaks. Care of the organizers will be the choice of the most suitable position for each exhibitor's booth. You will be timely informed of the choice which will be made on a first come first served basis.
